

Fighting For Lives Supporting the Motherland October 29, 2009 By Chrissy Ellin

www.fightingforlives.com

Legacy Martial Arts Studio is an Academy located in Claremont/Upland, CA. Headed by Chief Instructor Guro Jason Cruz. At Legacy MA Studio students are educated on the history, language, culture, and martial arts of the Philippines. With the recent Typhoon that hit our motherland. Legacy Martial Arts Studio has participated in 2 events in October and November. Both Events that LEGACY has participated in has raised over $2321 for the victims of the Typhoons and counting.

FIL-I-AM Charity Event October 29, 2009

Quest Crew with Team Legacy, Merci, Aileen

The 1st event was organized by Stephanie Poserio, CAPAS of Pitzer College on October 29, 2009. Among the performers were Hip Hop Violinist - Paul Dateh, Quest Crew (Winners of MTV's America's Best Dance Crew), Legacy Martial Arts Studio-Submission Kali, and others.

The event had a great turnout as the mounds of the college were filled to capacity. The Demo began with a brief lecture about the Filipino Martial Arts and its rich history. The Kali Warrior Kids group was the crowd favorite receiving repeated ovations. Team Legacy Adults united and gave a great performance demonstrating double stick, single stick, edged weapons, and empty hands against multiple attackers as well. Team Legacy's goal is to promote and preserve the Filipino martial arts and hope to participate in more events in 2010.

Mrs. Dina Divine Sicherman
defending against a knife

Saif, Dylan, and Ines- Kali
Warriors Kids Class

Mario Maldonado, Jake Gladstone, Elmer
Alacantara

Philippine Typhoon Charity Event

November 14, 2009

By Chrissy Ellin

The 2nd event was the Largest Global Charity Event of its kind. Groups from 4 continents held martial arts events simultaneously on the same weekend of November 14th 2009, organized by Mr. Parvez Alam of the Fighting for Lives Organization (fightingforlives.com).

Proceeds raised from each event, were donated to charity projects for less fortunate children. Legacy Martial Arts Studio chose the Typhoon Victims in the Philippines as their charity. It turned out to be a huge success. The entire Fighting For Lives event raised a total of $13,518.

Guro Jason Cruz
Submission Kali

The Charity Seminar started with Guro Jason Cruz of Submission Kali/Team Legacy. He demonstrated his empty hand curriculum which included practical stand up and ground techniques. As the Seminar went on more and more participants trickled in. A special guest also made an appearance Grandmaster Felix Roiles of Pakamut also donated his time for this event making it a spectacular Charity Event. His mix of comedy and powerful stick techniques kept everyone's attention. This was Grandmaster Felix Roiles' 2nd time at Legacy MA Studios. Participants left the Seminar wanting more and feeling great for participating in such a good cause.

To see the video of this Event please visit: Click Here

Grandmaster Felix Roiles
Pakamut

The participants are all ears

JB and Elmer doing stick

Mario, Arnelle, Jethro, JB, Elmer, Rollic

Do your part and if you also wish to help raise money for the Victims of the Typhoon, Legacy Fight Gear has designed a Typhoon Relief T Shirt, where the proceeds will go towards the Unicef Charity for the Philippine Typhoon Victims. Visit: legacyfightgear.com purchase the shirt and 100% of the proceeds will go towards the Charity.

At Legacy Martial Arts Studio, our goal is to provide a humble place for anyone and everyone who are willing to open minds, empty their tea cup to explore the possibilities in training. We promote unity, brotherhood, and respect amongst each other and all other forms and types of martial arts. We believe not any 1 system or style has it all. Each individual has their own truth.

Legacy Martial Arts Studio- Headquarters of Submission Kali

1242 N. Monte Vista Ave #2
Upland, CA 91786
(909) 575-8809

www.legacyfightgear.com

www.submissionkali.com